INTRODUCTION

Auction Note: Pifer's Auction & Realty is honored to offer 104.68 +/- acres of Fallon County, MT land at public auction on behalf of the Dennis Randash Family. Located just 1.25 miles west of Baker with direct access off US Hwy. #12, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a versatile, highly visible property on the doorstep of one of southeastern Montana's most established communities. Properties of this size, this close to Baker, with this kind of utility, do not come available often.

This is, at its core, an outstanding ranchette-style property. The property carries the working bones of a small livestock operation while staying right-sized for a family looking for room to run horses, raise a few head, and enjoy genuine Montana country within minutes of town. While the property has been used primarily as grazing land, over half of the acreage was formerly used as cropland, giving the next owner real flexibility. Whether the buyer wants to run yearlings, board horses, hay a portion, return acres to crop production, or simply enjoy a manageable acreage close to town, this property delivers options that larger and more remote properties cannot match.

Baker serves as the seat of Fallon County and anchors the surrounding agricultural economy. With grain handling, agricultural retail, healthcare, schools, and services all just over a mile away, this property pairs working country with everyday convenience.
